

Drink With Me

Looking for something original for your Thanksgiving gathering? Try Jones' holiday sodas. As far back as 2003, the soda gurus have bottled tasty concoctions such as turkey and gravy, mashed potatoes and butter, cranberry, green bean casserole, and fruitcake sodas. I'm not sure if any local stores carry the seasonal treats, but I do know of at least one store that carries the traditional Jones pure sugar cane sodas. Enough to keep you going all day long. For Christmas, the company also offers a gift pack featuring such delectable delights as sugar plum, christmas tree, egg nog, and christmas ham flavors. For our Jewish friends, chocolate coins, apple sauce, latke, and jelly doughnut flavors will delight during the season of light.

 Or maybe the Jones bottling company should make a deal with Disney to have their holiday sodas join the sodas of the world display at EPCOT.

Another Hundred Posts Got Onto Tangents

As my fellow blogger so eloquently posted, I would also like to send my thanks to all the readers, commenters (even those I have just now begun to spam because they seem to be worthless... don't worry all ye faithful die-hard fans you are not among the spammed). I too have enjoyed sharing my views on entertainment, news, and other bits of life. Along the way, I have discovered even more about myself and the people I like to call friends. I also send greetings from Indiana (or Indi-ana) via Morat who will be covering the vote tomorrow. Even talking about my not so favorite movies like Howard the Duck has been entertaining as hopefully I have entertained my readers. Here's to the next 100.

You've Got Possibilities

One of the sites that I find myself visiting at least once a week is the Superman Homepage. This site is devoted primarily to the Man of Steel but also features articles dealing with other DC comics heroes. It features a timeline that traces every conceivable event featuring the Last Son of Krypton dating back to June 1938 when he made his first appearance in Action Comics #1. There is also a Who's Who Database of characters as well as reviews of movies, television, comics, novels, music, even the Broadway musical It's a Bird... It's a Plane... It's Superman. I think my favorite feature is The Super-Trivia Quiz. Three questions posted at the beginning of each month that test the knowledge of even the most-die hard of Super fans. One of this month's questions:

In the 1940s Superman radio series what is the name given to Superman's enemy who has Kryptonite flowing through his veins?

I have no idea. I was not around in the 40s and have never heard the radio serial.

How Many Of Me

I recently received an email which directed me to a site where you can find out how many people in the United States share your name. I thought that it would be fun to discover just how many lucky people shared my name. To my shock, there was not a single person who has my name. That is exactly what the result was "There are 0 people in the United States who have that name." That is strange, I have had that name for the last 34 years 8 months and some odd days. I knew I was unique but did not know I was THAT unique.

Subject: How Many Are There of ME????

This activity is fun to do! Be sure to add your name to the bottom of this list.

Go to this web site <https://www.howmanyofme.com/>

Put in your first and last name and see how many people in the USA have your name as well.

After me just put your name and results below like I did. MAKE SURE YOU ONLY WRITE HOW MANY PEOPLE HAVE THE SAME EXACT NAME.

Pamper Me

NO... do not put me in a diaper. I was invited to attend a Pampered Chef party at the house of my very good friends. It was very entertaining. Everyone there got to help make brownies... (which ended up being slightly burned but with a little ice cream, were quite good). I ACCIDENTALLY spilled a smidgen of brown sugar on the floor as I was filling the plopper thing. THEN, I gracefully dropped a scoop of ice cream on the floor... sorry.

After the demo, we arranged an Oscar night party. I have not seen any of the movies nominated for any of the major awards. I have heard that Gone Baby Gone is not all that great. Only that it is Ben Affleck's directorial debut and has his brother, Casey in it. We briefly discussed Little Miss Sunshine which I have not seen but hope to. And while we were on the topic of Steve Carell movies, we mentioned Get Smart which will be coming to theatres this summer. I will say that I have seen Norbit on DVD which is up for Best Makeup. That movie should be a contender for WORST MOVIE EVER. I wonder how many movies have ever won both Oscars and Razzies.
