

You're doing what?

Well, I received an email last Friday. It was a request for my 'acting' ability. I have been on a self imposed hiatus from theater, so I didn't think I would be doing any sort of acting in the near future. I was wrong. I will be the understudy for one of the actors. He can't do all of the performances, so I will do the one he will miss. I'm just lucky it is a small role with very easy dialog. I get to be a love struck honeymooner. I've done that role once in real life, I think I can handle it. I played that role for 20 years.

This will be a little different. It is a dinner theater with audience participation. I'm looking forward to it. The audience will be sitting around and in the middle of our acting. Should be fun. The character I have doesn't have too much interaction with the audience, but I do have to be aware of where they are located during my various scenes.

I will have to get some information as to the cost of the performances. Should be interesting.
