Out Of The Mouths Of 1st Graders

I find it truely fascinating when I discover little tidbits about today's youth. Recently, a first grade teacher quizzed her students on proverbial phrases. She began by handing each of her 26 pupils a slip with half of a popular saying and asked them to complete it. I was amazed at the number I did not known....

- 1. Don't change horses......until they stop running
- 2. It's always darkest before...... Daylight Saving Time (true)
- 4. Don't bite the hand that......looks dirty (very wise)
- 5. If you lie down with dogs, you'll.....stink in the morning (don't know that one)
- 6. An idle mind is.......the best way to relax (don't I know it)
- 7. Where there's smoke there's.....pollution
- 8. Happy the bride who......gets all the presents (what about the groom?)
- 9. A penny saved.....is not much (so true... and won't get you much gas for your car, either)
- 10. Two's company, three's......the Musketeer's
- 11. Laugh and the world laughs
- with you, cry and.....you have to blow your nose
- 12. There are none so blind as............................... Stevie Wonder (surprised 1st graders know who Stevie Wonder is)
- 13. Children should be seen and not.....spanked or grounded
- 14. When the blind lead the blind.....get out of the way
- 15. A bird in the hand......is going to poop on you (HAHAHA)

I came across this insightful tidbit while glancing at our copy of "Now Hear This" the newsletter from Kenwood Hearing
