

In Development?

My sister just informed me of some trailers she just saw on youtube. Some fake and others I knew about already. The reboot of A Nightmare on Elm Street is due this Spring. I had to laugh when she swore that she saw an official preview for Jaws V. Even more telling was the fact that she said that Roy Scheider and Richard Dreyfuss were going to reprise their characters from the original. Hilarious, because Sheriff Brody was killed sometime between Jaws 2 and Jaws 3-D. And once again, following the debacle that was Jaws: The Revenge (tagline: "This time, it's personal."), I ask: WHY?! Especially when it's been a good 25 years since the last one.

Finally, Spider-Man 4 is about to get underway. Something very strange: after only 3 films in the last decade, we are getting a re-haul of the franchise. A new director is taking over which will probably mean a new cast. But why reintroduce the series when it has only been a few years since the last film was released. While by far the worst of the trilogy, Spider-Man 3 still had moments of fun and it did have a lot to live up to following the phenomenal second installment.
