

To Boldly Go To Infinity And Beyond

Because I know all of my faithful readers have been dying to learn the answers to last Saturday's tagline quiz (aside from the one who provided additional clues to the answers), I will now reveal the correct responses.

1. The Fly (1986 remake starring Jeff Goldblum and Gena Davis)
2. Jurassic Park (which was pretty much a gimme... again with Jeff Goldblum... purely coincidence)
3. Star Trek: The Motion Picture (rather plodding kick off of the movie franchise which will be relaunched Christmas Day, 2008 and is being directed by "Lost" creator J.J. Abrams)
4. Aliens (the best of the Sigourney Weaver starring quadrilogy.... I have yet to try the two Alien v. Predator films)
5. Toy Story (a third is in the works.... interesting)
6. E.T. – The Extraterrestrial (again, a bit obvious. Harrison Ford was married to the screenwriter, Melissa Matheson at the time of its release and was supposed to have a cameo as a school principal. Steven Spielberg felt that the actor's presence would be too distracting to the cast and crew and his scene was cut. Did not hurt either the movie nor Mr. Ford's career in the least).
