

Who Knew In NW0?

Tonight, I joined Megs to partake in a concert performed by The Black Swamp Strings of which CC is a cellist. I remember learning a month or so ago that the concert was this weekend but I was not sure of the date, thank heaven my friend invited me to come on my SATURDAY OFF!

The music was phenomenal! It ranged from Bach's Jesu. Joy of Man's Desiring (one of the most beautiful pieces EVER written) to more contemporary fare such as theme from Pirates of the Caribbean, Schindler's List, and "All I Ask of You" from The Phantom of the Opera. Another favorite of mine... Brahms' Hungarian Dance No. 5 was also presented. I know that almost everyone has heard this piece somewhere.

I was particularly impressed with the age range of the musicians. There were several who had just or were about to graduate high school who started with the group at age 14 back in its "garage days." There were also the seasoned veterans.

I don't know how long it takes to become even close to being proficient enough on a stringed instrument to perform with a group of this talent, but it seems like you would have to start at birth!

One of our neighboring audience members has a nephew who was a member of the group who is now a professional musician. He will soon be heard on the scores of two of this summer's sure-fire hits: Steven Spielberg's Super 8 and Cars 2. He is also in the Santa Barbara Orchestra. I guess it is possible to achieve a life-long dream no matter where you grow up. The audience member told me to congratulate "my wife" on a great job! Sorry, she only plays my wife on stage. ☹

THANKS MEGS...Had lots of fun! And great job, wife ☹ Until next time.

Here is Brahms' Hungarian Dance for those of you who think they have never hear it!
