

Back At EHS

The return of the high school musical. It has been years and long over due! I'm sure there is some talent still in the school. I remember the days when the musical was one of the highlights of the school year! I may only vaguely remember seeing The Wizard of Oz back in the late 70s but I don't think I have missed either being an audience member, in the cast, or helping in other regards of all the others. I remember Carousel (my favorite Rodgers and Hammerstein show), Music Man, Finian's Rainbow, and many others.

March 18th-20th, my alma mater will once again present You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown. I remember the last time the school performed it. My two oldest brothers were in the chorus. For the new staging, there will be a nostalgic feel. Schroeder's piano is being donated by the person who built it and had the role 25 years ago! The mother of the actor and I reminisced the other day at the store. Her daughter played Peppermint Patty. Maybe would have been nice to have a show never done before at the school but at least the interest is there for the future.
