

Frustrated

Okay, I know that Sue needs help moving up here, but I really don't understand what has been happening. She called Jane and said that she couldn't handle things on her own, so Jane left a week earlier than planned, and yet still coming back when she originally planned, if not later. Amanda is getting so frustrated with her mom, and so am I, but I am there to help Amanda and that's what I'm doing. Apparently things are not going well with Sue, but at least Jane is there to help her. It doesn't help that Amanda never wanted to babysit in the first place. That's what Jane does, and Amanda had to take over while her mom is away. Ugh, it's just so frustrating and there isn't anything I can do about it. We, Amanda and I, are hoping that Jane will be back by the 28 or so, but it could be later than that. There is so much going on that I would love to write about, but I don't think it would be appropriate, at least to write about it on the internet. Thank goodness my boyfriend is always there to hear me complain and things.
