

Finally back online.

Figures, to use a word Jamiahsh did on my last post. Why do I use it? Well, because the tech never showed up! That's right, no call, no nothing. And get this- I called Comcast and they said the appointment was canceled! What?? Actually, that was the second time I called. The first time I called the representative was helpful and even gave me a $25 credit on the spot for their tardiness. She then got in contact with the local dispatch and I was informed they would call me with an updated ETA. As I said, they never did. Now I need to wait until Friday. Sigh. I am actually at my church right now using their wireless to write this. I wish the local office was as customer friendly as the 888 number...

The above post was actually written two days ago, but for some reason I must have hit the save button instead of the publish button. So, now that I am online again I thought I might as well post it. Today the tech came (according to him he wasn't the right tech- the one who had this job was tied up at another job- but who cares, I'm back up!) and I showed him the bad spot. Ten minutes later, after a couple snips off the bad section and a couple of connectors put in place to join the ends, I am back in business. Well, I am going to catch up on some news now. I'll post again later. And thanks Taylhis on the update on C. I did get the email, and read your comment on the last post. I am glad the problem has finally been identified and is being treated. Prayers that the biopsy tests come back negative.
