I never thought I would see this....

I really thought I've seen a lot on the web, but I never thought I would see this.

Just for your information, I was looking up which albums Longer by Dan Fogelberg" was included in. I really didn't expect to see a video of an old LP playing. I have a number of Fogelberg's CD, and a few old LPs. It is just that now I don't have anyway to play the LPs... I haven't watched one on a turntable for years...

I need to find the tape of my wedding, my 'little' sister sang Longer for us.
