Sad Week in Entertainment News

The latest news I heard was that Harvey Korman died. One of the best comedy actors in his day, he starred on the "Carol Burnett Show" for years, and was in many of my favorite Mel Brooks Comedies.

Dick Martin from Laugh-In died on the 24th of May.

And finally on my list was the man who made America whistle. Earl Hagen the composer of the Andy Griffith Show theme, died this week.

So for all of these and other entertainers that recently died, have a laugh or just give a little whistle.
