

Four Square

Our sermon jam was about the gospel today. We listened to Old Church Choir for worship

For math we did more exponents and some 7th grade math vocabulary, for history we finished up The Cold War and talked about it. During recess we played four square and baseball, and we finished up the steel vengeance video for physics as well as talked about it.

